FAURECIA RECOGNIZED FOR ITS COCKPIT OF THE FUTURE VISION BY THE GROUPE RENAULT

Faurecia, a leading automotive technology company, was honored with an Innovation award at the 2018 Groupe Renault Suppliers event. The award recognizes Faurecia's Cockpit of the Future vision and contribution to the Renault's scale 1 demonstrator representing its 2025 vision for an urban, autonomous (level 4) and electrified vehicle.

David Degrange, Vice President of the Cockpit of the future division at Faurecia declared: "We are very much honored to receive this award from Renault which recognizes the excellent collaboration between us in a short time frame to deliver an innovative concept for future vehicle interiors. We have created with Renault a real Lab of advanced and functional innovations that enhanced the user experience for future autonomous, connected and electric vehicles."

The Groupe Renault also awarded Faurecia and its interiors activity in the "Excellence Manufacturing" category for its plant based at Pitesti in Romania. This facility, at the forefront of the Group's Industry 4.0 initiative, is manufacturing instrument panels, door panels, acoustic and soft trims for Dacia.
