PRESS RELEASE

EFMD awards Faurecia with CLIP Accreditation for its Corporate University

EFMD is delighted to announce that Faurecia University has recently received CLIP accreditation and join the community of accredited organisations. The Corporate Learning Improvement Process (CLIP) is a unique accreditation run by EFMD that focuses on identifying the key factors that determine quality in the design and functioning of corporate universities and learning organisations.

Martin Moehrle, Associate Director, Corporate Services, who leads the CLIP process at EFMD, commented: "EFMD is very pleased that Faurecia University (FU) has successfully gone through CLIP accreditation. We were particularly impressed by the strong alignment of top management with the mission and role of FU, by the digital and social learning platforms and activities within Faurecia, by the reverse digital mentoring program, by the professionalism and engagement of the FU team, and by the positive brand image of FU. We congratulate FU for this achievement and look forward to their contribution to the CLIP community."

"Starting in 2015, Faurecia undertook a major transformation of its business and made training a strategic driver for of its employees. We are very proud to receive this world leading accreditation. It recognises our Faurecia University as a major cornerstone of our cultural, business and digital transformation and our commitment to empower our human capital," declared Jean-Pierre Sounillac, Executive Vice President Human Resources of Faurecia.
