Q3 2019 Sales slightly below worldwide automotive production

- Worldwide automotive production was down 3.1% in Q3
- Faurecia’s Q3 sales amounted to €4,185m, up 4.3% on a reported basis; they included:
  - A scope effect of €256m due to the consolidation of Clarion
  - A limited bolt-on contribution of €14m, vs. a significant bolt-on contribution of €164m in H1
- Ex-currency, Q3 sales were down 3.7%, impacted by:
  - A peak effect of -4.5% or €179m due to the phasing of the already announced Seating EoPs; this effect will reduce as from Q4
  - An effect of -0.6% or €23m due to the GM strike in the US
- Interiors and Clean Mobility outperformed worldwide automotive production, by respectively 160bps and 620bps

(vehicles segment in line with CAAM for China)
Worldwide automotive production was down 6.0% in 9m, with China down 12.9%

Faurecia’s 9m sales amounted to €13,157m, up 1.2% on a reported basis
  - Including a scope effect of €407m due to the consolidation of Clarion since April 1

Ex-currency, 9m sales were down 3.1%, outperforming worldwide automotive production by 290bps
  - Including bolt-on contribution of €178m, mostly in H1

By Business Group:
  - Interiors and Clean Mobility strongly outperformed, by respectively 380bps and 560bps
  - Seating slightly underperformed (-40bps), mostly due to the EoPs already mentioned in previous quarters

Outperformance since the beginning of the year is well within the range of 150bps to 350bps guided for FY 2019

Seating Sales continued to be impacted by significant EoPs

Sales of €1,571m, down 9.9% on a reported basis
- Including a positive currency effect of +0.7%
- No bolt-on contribution in Q3

Sales ex-currencies dropped by 10.5%, impacted by:
- A negative impact from EoPs for a combined effect of €179m or -10.3%
- A negative impact from the GM strike in the USA for €8m or -0.5%

Sales drop is broadly in line with the previous quarter:
- Excluding the positive effect from bolt-on contribution that favored Q2
- Reflecting a higher negative impact from EoPs in Q3

Over 2 years, sales ex-currencies were broadly stable, outperforming worldwide automotive production by c. 600bps
- Challenging base of comparison from Q3 2018 that posted sales ex-currencies growth of +10.3%

The VW Chattanooga (USA) Seating business, is not included in consolidated sales figures; as a minority business, it is accounted for by the equity method (sales for this business amounted to €40m in Q3 2019)

9 months 2019
- Sales amounted to €5,210m, down 5.7% on a reported basis, including:
  - A limited positive currency effect of €40m or +0.7%
  - €106m (or +1.9%) from bolt-on contribution (BYD)

- Sales ex-currencies* dropped by 6.4% vs. automotive production growth of -6.0%
  - Including a negative impact from EoPs for a combined negative effect of €397m or -7.2%

Continued outperformance in a challenging environment

Q3 2019 sales

- Sales of 1,198m, up 1.1% on a reported basis
  - Including a positive currency effect of +2.6% (mainly the USD and the TRY vs. the euro)

- Sales ex-currencies dropped by 1.5%, outperforming worldwide automotive production by 160bps

- Growth with:
  - VW and PSA in Europe,
  - FCA and Tesla in North America, and
  - Hyundai and Chinese OEMs in Asia
did not offset challenging market conditions faced by other OEMs

9 months 2019

- Sales amounted to €3,939m, down 1.0% on a reported basis
  - Including a positive currency effect of €45m or +1.1%
  - Including €21m (or +0.5%) from bolt-on contribution (Wuling)

Solid growth at Coagent and integration of Clarion and Parrot Automotive

Q3 2019 sales

- Sales of €302m, included:
  - €32m for Coagent
  - €14m for Parrot Automotive, consolidated as from Jan. 1, 2019
  - €256m for Clarion (4 months in Q3 = June catch-up + July to September)

- Solid growth at Coagent, driven by new launches

- Clarion sales reflected:
  - Lower sales to Nissan and Honda, as well as difficult market conditions in China
  - Selectivity according to product line priorities

9 months 2019

- Sales amounted to €542m
  - €98m for Coagent
  - €37m for Parrot Automotive (consolidated as from Jan. 1, 2019)

Agenda

1. Q3 2019 Sales

2. Confirmed FY 2019 guidance

3. Project to acquire remaining 50% stake of SAS
Confirmed FY 2019 guidance, demonstrating increased resilience

With the revised assumption of worldwide automotive production, now expected to be down by close to 6% in 2019 vs. 2018, we confirm our full-year 2019 targets:

- SALES

  FY 2019 sales at constant currencies should outperform worldwide automotive production between 150 and 350bps

  (excluding Clarion consolidation)

- PROFITABILITY

  FY 2019 operating income should increase in value and operating margin should be at least 7% of sales

  (including Clarion consolidation as from April 1)

- NET CASH FLOW

  FY 2019 net cash flow should be at least €500m

  (including Clarion consolidation as from April 1)

* Currency assumptions: USD/€ @ 1.14 and CNY/€ @ 7.71, on average, and taking into account IFRS16 implementation
Agenda

1. Q3 2019 Sales
2. Confirmed FY 2019 guidance
3. Project to acquire remaining 50% stake of SAS
Project to acquire remaining 50% stake of SAS will strengthen Faurecia’s expertise in cockpit architecture and systems integration

- SAS: the Cockpit and Module Experts
  - JV 50/50 between Faurecia and Continental
  - Active for more than 20 years
  - Leader in complex cockpit module assembly
  - Flexible business model and strong operational expertise in systems integration and complexity management

- Strategic rationale
  - Expand Faurecia’s systems integration offer to all interior modules and integration of new solutions such as displays, electronics, sensors and thermal management
  - Strengthen Faurecia’s JIT network
  - Fully aligned with Faurecia’s strategy to become a strong leader in cockpit systems integration
  - Strong synergies through manufacturing engineering, logistics and footprint optimization as well as in purchasing and SG&A

A strategic and immediately accretive acquisition

- SAS has been accounted for by the equity method in Faurecia’s consolidated statements:
  - In 2018, the share of net income from associates (50%) amounted to €23.5m
- SAS sales (IFRS15) should be around €700m in 2019 (vs. €633m in 2018) and should exceed €1bn by 2024, representing a CAGR of c. 9%
- Immediate accretion on Operating Margin, Net Income and ROCE
- Price for the 50% remaining shares: €225m (excluding cash)
- Calendar:
  - MoU signed on October 14
  - Employee consultations and regulatory approvals underway
  - Closing expected in early 2020
- It will be consolidated into the Interiors Business Group

Safe Harbor Statement

This report contains statements that are not historical facts but rather forward-looking statements. The words "will," "may," "designed to," "outlook," "believes," "should," "anticipates," "plans," "expects," "intends," "estimates" and similar expressions identify these forward-looking statements. All such statements are based upon our current expectations and various assumptions, and apply only as of the date of this report.

Our expectations and beliefs are expressed in good faith and we believe there is a reasonable basis for them.

However, there can be no assurance that forward-looking statements will materialize or prove to be correct. Because such statements involve risks and uncertainties such as automotive vehicle production levels, mix and schedules, financial distress of key customers, energy prices, raw material prices, the strength of the European or other economies, currency exchange rates, cancellation of or changes to commercial contracts, liquidity, the ability to execute on restructuring actions according to anticipated timelines and costs, the outcome could differ materially from those set out in the statements.

Except for our ongoing obligation to disclose information under law, we undertake no obligation to update publicity any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information or future events.
