FAURECIA WINS TOP EMPLOYER - EUROPE AWARD FOR ITS HUMAN CAPITAL MANAGEMENT EXCELLENCE

Faurecia, one of the world's largest automotive equipment suppliers, received the 2018 "Top Employer Europe" label based on certification in five countries: France, Germany, Spain, the Czech Republic and Poland. In Europe, the Group is one of 31 companies certified in 2018 for excellence in relation to the work environment and career development.

The Top Employers label is awarded to companies that meet relevant standards with regard to HR management practices in talent attraction and development, compensation and social benefits, as well as training and skills development.

Jean-Pierre Sounillac, EVP Human Resources at Faurecia: "The wide range of profiles, skills development and improved agility of our teams and organization are central to Faurecia's talent development strategy, as we step up our Group's transformation. Our first Top Employer Europe certification and our drive to develop our human capital reflect our commitment to empower our employees with our digital transformation."

Faurecia employs people from 90 different nations in the 34 countries in which it has operations. Faurecia's HR Department works daily to support the Group's growth and transformation by creating a stimulating, innovative environment for all employees.
