DONATION OF 100,00 MASKS TO LOCAL HOSPITALS

While ensuring the safety and the security of its employees which remains its top priority, the Faurecia Group today announces the donation of 100,000 surgical masks to the Civil Hospitals of Colmar.

The Group has decided to focus its support on Eastern France, one of the most affected regions to date where Faurecia operates several industrial and R&D sites.

Patrick Koller, Chief Executive Officer of Faurecia, declares: "Given the current health situation in our country, Faurecia and all its employees wanted to show national solidarity and support the unprecedented efforts of hospital staff."
