FAURECIA ORGANIZES A VIRTUAL RECRUITMENT FAIR AND OFFERS MORE THAN 800 APPRENTICESHIP CONTRACTS AND INTERNSHIPS

Faurecia, one of the world's leading automotive technology companies, is organizing a virtual recruitment fair from May 31 to June 4, 2021, offering over 800 apprenticeship contracts and internships within the company.

Several conferences and speed dating sessions will take place during the week and will be accessible live via a digital platform. More than 400 apprenticeship contracts and 400 internships in France and other countries will be offered, covering a wide range of profiles, notably in research and development, sales, human resources and finance. Candidates can already register on www.faureciajobs.com.

A conference will be held daily at 6:00 p.m. Paris time, in English, to provide insights into the Group's businesses and environment.

- Monday, May 31: Faurecia at a glance, CV and interview tips, with Falak Elliot and Mayra Flores, Recruitment Managers France and Mexico.
- Tuesday June 1: Automotive world, Business backdoors with Olivier Moral, Customer Strategy Manager.
- Wednesday June 2: You create the move, with Karla Gongora, Research & Development Director.
- Thursday June 3: A career at Faurecia, with Ivonne Perez, Management Development Manager.

Jean-Pierre Sounillac, Executive Vice President in charge of Human Resources, said:
"We renewed our commitment to youth employment a few months ago, with 1400 opportunities in apprenticeship, internship or VIE within Faurecia. Today, we have more than 400 apprenticeship contracts and 400 internships in France and other countries available. Supporting future generations as they start their careers echoes our deepest Convictions and will enable us to design tomorrow's mobility together. "
