Subject to compliance with the foregoing, payment terms for approved amounts shall be ninety (90) days after PPAP approval and successful audit. The Company shall have the right to deduct 5% from the payment in the event the Supplier’s PPAP sample submission is more than fifteen (15) calendar days late from its scheduled due date. For PPAP sample submissions submitted forty-five (45) or more calendar days after their scheduled due date, the Company shall have the exclusive option to cancel any Purchase Order in whole or part, without any liability or obligation to the Supplier. Approved invoices will be paid by the Company after payment for such approved Equipment from the Customer, and in proportion to such payment actually received from the Customer. Invoices shall be subject to an audit of the Supplier’s records prior to such invoices being approved. The Company shall have the right to audit the Supplier’s books and records related to the Equipment for a period of two (2) years after PPAP submission by the Company to its Customer and in the event that the Company determines that any amount was not properly payable may debit the Supplier’s accounts for such amounts. The Supplier will cooperate in the audit and supply the Company with all necessary information for the audit.
24.6 Identification. Prior to the Supplier’s first production shipment, the Supplier must submit to the Company in writing a listing of the Identification Numbers for all Equipment (including all molds, tools, tooling, dies, jigs, fixtures, and other capital equipment), detailed descriptions and locations for each item with an Identification Number, tooling biographies and confirmation that each is properly marked as detailed above.

24.7 Non-Disposal. All Equipment, including molds, tools, tooling, dies, jigs, fixtures, and other equipment, shall not be scrapped or made available to third parties (for any purpose including but not limited to production purposes) without the prior written consent of the Company.

24.8 Transfer of Equipment. Immediately upon the Company’s request, all or any portion of the Company’s Equipment in the possession of the Supplier shall be immediately released to the Company or delivered to the Company by the Supplier, either (a) for international shipments DDP at the Company’s plant (F.O.B. the Company’s plant for all other shipments) properly packed and marked in accordance with the requirements of the carrier selected by the Company to transport such Equipment, unless stated differently on the Purchase Order or (b) to any location designated by the Company, in which event the Company shall reimburse the Supplier the reasonable and documented costs of delivering such Equipment to such location.

24.9 Lien Waiver/Property Rights. Where permitted by law, the Supplier hereby waives any possession rights, lien rights, requirements for the posting of bond or other surety, or other rights that the Supplier might otherwise have in any of such Equipment or other of the Company’s property for work performed on such Equipment, Contractual Products or other goods manufactured with such Equipment or otherwise.

24.10 Condition and Treatment of Equipment. As the custodian of the Equipment and or Provided Materials, Supplier will protect the Equipment and/or Provided Materials against the risks of loss, theft, damage or destruction. As a prudent and careful user, Supplier will keep the Equipment and/or Provided Materials in good working order and will be responsible for any extraordinary wear and tear or deviations in the manufacturing process. Supplier will inform Company, within a timeframe compatible with the launch of new Equipment, about normal wear and tear that might necessitate the overhaul of said Equipment. Supplier will take out all necessary insurance to cover the replacement value of the Equipment, as well as liability insurance policies against damage that the Equipment may cause to third parties. Supplier will provide proof of insurance at least once a year during the term of the Contract.

24.11 No Transfer of Ownership. Performance by the Supplier hereunder shall not transfer any right of ownership in, nor license to, nor permission to use, the Equipment except to the extent necessary to produce Contractual Products or Contractual Services or as otherwise agreed in writing by the Company. The Company shall have the option at any time to purchase the Equipment, including any and all molds, tools, tooling, dies, jigs, fixtures, and other equipment, used in the manufacture of Contractual Products or delivery of Contractual Services for the Company not already owned by the Company, at the then current book value, less any costs for repair or refurbishment.
25. TERMINATION

25.1. Company’s Termination for Convenience.

25.1.1. The Company shall be entitled to terminate the Contract or any Purchase Order, statement of work or agreement hereof, partially or entirely at any time for any reason by providing thirty (30) days advanced written notice to Supplier (including notice by e-mail).

25.1.2. Upon receipt of notice of termination, the Supplier shall (a) stop work on the termination date and to the extent specified in the notice and terminate all orders and subcontracts to the extent they relate to the terminated work, (b) comply with the Company’s instructions regarding the protection, transfer and disposition of title to and possession of such work and materials. The Supplier shall submit to the Company any claims relating to such termination as soon as possible, but in any event within thirty (30) days from the effective date of such termination. Failure of the Supplier to submit its claim within this time period shall be an absolute waiver of any right of compensation. The Supplier hereby grants the Company the right to audit and inspect the Supplier’s books, records, and all other documents related to the Supplier’s termination claims. Upon termination by the Company under this Section, the Company’s sole and exclusive obligations shall be: (i) payment of the Purchase Order price for all finished supplies in the quantities ordered by the Company under the Purchase Order for which the Supplier has not been paid; (ii) the Supplier’s actual cost of merchantable and useable work-in-process and raw materials incurred by Supplier under the Purchase Order, to the extent such costs are reasonable, and the parts and materials transferred to the Company under part (b) above; (iii) the Supplier’s actual costs, to the extent such costs are reasonable, of settling obligations to its subcontractors required under the Purchase Order, to the extent directly caused by the termination, but limited to the amount of the firm quantities of supplies and raw materials/components specified in Releases issued by the Company and then currently outstanding; (iv) the Supplier’s reasonable actual cost of carrying out its obligations under this Section and amounts due in connection with transition. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other document between the parties, the Company shall have no obligation for and will not be required to pay the Supplier for loss of anticipated profit, unabsorbed overhead, interest on claims, product development and engineering costs, tooling, facilities and equipment rearrangement costs or rental, unamortized capital or depreciation costs, finished goods, work-in-process or raw materials that the Supplier fabricates or procures in amounts exceeding those authorized in the Releases, work-in-process or parts or raw materials inventory which can be returned to Supplier’s vendors or subcontractors for credit or general administrative burden charges from termination of the Purchase Order or after the effective date of termination by the Company. In all cases, the Company’s obligation upon termination under this Section will not exceed the obligation the Company would have had to the Supplier in the absence of termination. The Company may, at its sole and exclusive discretion, require the Supplier to manufacture and deliver up to a twenty-four (24) week bank of Contractual Products (the “Product Bank”) at the pricing set forth in the applicable Purchase Order. In such case, the Product Bank shall remain subject to all of the terms set forth in the Contract.

25.1.3. Unless otherwise authorized in writing by the Company, the Supplier shall not make non-terminable commitments for materials or fabricate in advance of the time necessary to permit shipment(s) on the delivery date(s) specified in the Company’s Releases. The Company shall in no event be liable or responsible for any such costs or amounts incurred by the Supplier in breach of this provision.

25.1.4. The Supplier shall not terminate or cancel a Purchase Order.

25.2. Termination Upon Default.

25.2.1. The Company reserves the right to terminate a Purchase Order in whole or in part for default occasioned by the Supplier’s threatened or actual failure to perform in accordance with the requirements of a Purchase Order (including the obligations arising under these Terms) or Release. Such termination shall be without liability to the Company, except for accepted Contractual Products and accepted Contractual Services. The Supplier shall be liable for all direct, indirect, special and consequential damages, including but not limited to lost profits, penalties or costs imposed by the Customer on the Company, either in whole or in part caused by, arising from or resulting from the Supplier’s default.

25.2.2. The Company may terminate the Contract or any Purchase Order in whole or in part, in the event of a change in control/ownership of the Supplier or the sale by the Supplier of a material part of the assets used to perform under a Purchase Order. “Control” within the meaning of this Section shall mean that a third party directly or indirectly obtains at least fifty percent (50%) of the shares or voting rights at the shareholders’ meeting and/or any decision-making corporate body of the Supplier. Any such termination shall be a termination for cause and shall be without cost to the Company. In such case, Supplier shall remain subject to the damages set forth in 25.2.1 to the Company.

25.2.3. Company may immediately terminate, in whole or in part, any Purchase Order if Company determines, in its sole discretion, that Supplier has breached its obligations to perform in compliance with Company’s Code of Ethics, QAA, Warranty Agreement and related policies. In such case, Supplier shall be liable for all costs, damages and expenses caused by or resulting from such default.

25.2.4. If the Company believes Supplier may breach its obligations under the Contract or any Purchase Order or statement of work hereunder, the Company may, but shall not be obligated to, demand adequate assurances from the Supplier. In such case, Supplier shall provide, in the detail and in the form required by the Company such adequate assurances that it is capable of and will continue to perform in conformity with its obligations hereunder. The Supplier shall provide such adequate assurances within five (5) calendar days following a written request by the Company.

25.3. Termination Upon Insolvency or Bankruptcy.
The Company may terminate a Purchase Order, without liability, in the event of the insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, receivership or liquidation by or against the Supplier; or if the Supplier fails to provide adequate written assurance of adequate performance after demand by the Company as set forth in Section 25.2.4; or if the Supplier makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or ceases to carry on business in the ordinary course. If Company does not terminate a Purchase Order upon the occurrence of Supplier’s Insolvency or Bankruptcy, Company may make such equitable adjustments to the price, payment terms and/or delivery requirements as Company deems appropriate to address the change in Supplier’s circumstances, including Supplier’s on-going liability to perform its obligations regarding warranty, defective Contractual Products and/or Contractual Services, or other requirements under a Purchase Order.

25.4. Termination or Suspension for Prolonged Excusable Delay or Force Majeure.

If any delay whether or not permissible in accordance with Section 26.6 below, lasts longer than thirty (30) days, the Company may, but shall not be obligated to, terminate the Purchase Order without liability and the Supplier shall reimburse the Company for all costs associated with the termination.

25.5. Consequences of the Expiration or Termination of the Contract.

Provisions of the Contract that, by their nature, extend beyond the end of the Contract shall remain valid after the end of the Contract. This shall apply regardless the reason for which the Contract comes to an end.

Upon termination of the Contract for any reason and against reasonable consideration, the Supplier shall immediately, upon demand by the Company, deliver to the Company all inventories of raw materials and parts, work-in-process and/or finished Contractual Products and/or any related safety equipment used in the performance of the Contract and which are in its possession at the effective date of termination.

26. EXCUSABLE DELAY; FORCE MAJEURE

26.1. Force Majeure. If the performance of the Contract is prevented, delayed or suspended by reason of a Force Majeure event, Supplier shall, as soon as possible (but no more than one (1) full business day) after the occurrence, provide written notice to the Company describing such delay, the causes thereof, remedial steps being taken to mitigate impact on the Company and its Customer, the anticipated duration of the delay and the time that the delay will be cured consistent with this Section 26. The Supplier’s inability to perform as a result, or delays caused by, the Supplier’s insolvency or lack of financial resources is deemed to be within the Supplier’s control. The change in cost or availability of materials or components based on market conditions, supplier actions, or contract disputes or any labor strike or other labor disruption applicable to the Supplier or any of its Subcontractors or suppliers, will not excuse the Supplier’s performance (under theories of force majeure, commercial impracticability or otherwise), and the Supplier assumes these risks.

26.1.1. Company Options. During the delay or failure to perform by the Supplier, the Company may at its sole option: (a) purchase supplies from other sources and reduce its schedules to the Supplier by such quantities, without liability to the Company; (b) require the Supplier to deliver to the Company at the Company’s expense all finished goods, work in process and parts and materials produced or acquired for work under the Purchase Order; (c) have the Supplier provide supplies from other sources in quantities and at a time requested by the Company and at the price set forth in the Purchase Order; or (d) Company may source the Contractual Products and/or Contractual Services from an alternative source and Supplier shall reimburse Company for any difference in cost in procuring such Contractual Products or Contractual Services, including but not limited to price differences, expedited shipping/freight costs or similar costs.

26.1.2. Supplier, at its sole cost and expense, shall use best efforts to mitigate any adverse effects or costs to Company due to any actual or potential delay, including (i) the implementation of a production contingency plan; (ii) expedited freight and shipping; (iii) sourcing through alternative locations/jurisdictions; and (iv) upon Company’s express written authorization, increasing Supplier’s inventory of finished goods or Contractual Products to a level sufficient to sustain deliveries during such delay. Supplier will cooperate with the Company in securing alternate supplies, providing requested information, including specifications and processes, as to the event and duration, and in any investigation into whether an event is under the Supplier’s reasonable control or not.

26.1.3. Company may delay acceptance of delivery of the Contractual Products and/or performance of the Contractual Services by reason of an excusable delay. In such case, Supplier shall hold the Contractual Products or delay performance of the Contractual Services, at Company’s direction and at no cost to Company, until the cause of the excusable delay has been removed.

26.1.4. Without limiting Supplier’s obligations hereunder, in the event of any supply allocation, including that cause by a Force Majeure Event, Supplier shall give preference to the Company for all of the Contractual Products and dedication of persons for the delivery of the Contractual Services ordered under any Purchase Order.

26.1.5. In addition, the Supplier at its expense will take all necessary actions to ensure the supply of the Contractual Products and/or Contractual Services to the Company for a period of at least thirty (30) days during any anticipated labour disruption or resulting from the expiration of the Supplier’s labour contracts. If upon the Company’s request, the Supplier fails to provide within ten (10) days (or such shorter period as the Company requires) adequate assurance that any delay will not exceed thirty (30) days, or if any delay lasts longer than thirty (30) days, the Company may terminate the Purchase Order without liability and the Supplier shall reimburse the Company for costs associated with the termination.

27. RECALL; RECALL LIABILITY

Upon the occurrence of a Recall, if a potential cause for the Recall is determined in the Company’s reasonable judgment to be attributable to the Supplier, the Supplier will release, defend, indemnify and hold the Forvia Indemnified Parties harmless for all Liabilities, including but not limited to the costs of any services or other actions incurred to correct or to remedy any Recall. The Forvia Indemnified Party remedies under this Section shall include, but not be limited to, a claim for actual, consequential and incidental damages (including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees, legal costs, expert fees and costs, and administrative costs and expenses) arising out of, resulting from or related to any such Recall. The term “Recall” shall mean (i) in the absence of an order issued by any applicable governmental agency or authority of China or any other country, notification by the Customer to the applicable governmental authority of China or such other foreign country and to owners, purchasers, and dealers as required under applicable law, that any motor vehicle or item of replacement equipment contains a defect related to motor vehicle safety or that such vehicle or item of replacement equipment fails to comply with an applicable motor vehicle safety standard, or such other notification as may be required under any other applicable law and/or (ii) an order by any applicable Chinese or foreign governmental agency or authority with respect to any motor vehicle or item of replacement equipment which fails to comply with an applicable motor vehicle safety standard or contains a defect which relates to motor vehicle safety, or an order by any applicable Chinese or foreign governmental agency or authority requiring notification and remedial action on the part of the Forvia Indemnified Party with respect to any motor vehicle or item of replacement equipment. Any decision by the Company, in its sole discretion, to contest in a legal proceeding or any determination by any Chinese or foreign governmental agency or authority, with respect to a Recall order shall not waive or diminish in any manner any rights of any Forvia Indemnified Party under the provisions of this Section. The Forvia Indemnified Party’s rights under this Section shall be cumulative and additional to any remedies provided by law or in equity.

28. LIMITATION ON REMEDIES, LIABILITIES AND DAMAGES

The Company’s entire liability to the Supplier for any loss, liability or damage, including attorneys’ fees, for any claim arising out of or related to the Contractual Products or Contractual Services, regardless of form of action, will be limited to the Supplier’s actual direct out-of-pocket expenses which are reasonably incurred by the Supplier, and only to the extent that sufficient and acceptable documentary evidence of such damages is presented to the Company. In no event will the Supplier’s recovery exceed the total amount of purchases by the Company during the three (3) month period immediately preceding such claim. IN NO EVENT WILL THE COMPANY OR ANY FORVIA INDEMNIFIED PARTY BE LIABLE TO THE SUPPLIER OR ANY THIRD PARTY FOR LOST PROFITS, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, HOWSOEVER ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THE CONTRACTUAL PRODUCTS OR CONTRACTUAL SERVICES PROVIDED TO THE COMPANY, REGARDLESS OF THE BASIS OF SUCH CLAIM.

29. INDEMNIFICATION

The Supplier agrees to indemnify, defend, protect and hold harmless Forvia Indemnified Parties from and against any and all Liabilities.

30. REMEDIES

30.1. Cumulative Remedies. The remedies provided by these GPC and at law are cumulative and in addition to any other rights and remedies available to the Company at Law, in equity or otherwise. The Supplier hereby waives any claims that it may have against the Company in tort, under statute or in equity, and confirms that the Supplier’s complete rights and remedies as against the Company, including the right of indemnity and measure of damages in the event of the Company’s breach or default, are limited to those expressly conferred by or provided for in these GPC.

30.2. Continued Performance. Notwithstanding the termination of a Purchase Order, in whole or part, whether for cause or convenience, so long as during the Transition Period, as defined hereinafter, and provided that the Company timely pays the pricing set forth on the Purchase Order for such Contractual Products and/or Contractual Services, the Supplier shall have the absolute obligation to continue to provide or deliver the Contractual Products and/or Contractual Services in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Order for a reasonable period of time to permit the Company the opportunity to procure a replacement supplier, so as to permit an orderly transition of the production of the Contractual Products and/or Contractual Services and so as to avoid any interruption of production at the Company’s facilities or the facilities of the Customer. Such period being referred to herein as the “Transition Period.” The Supplier will cooperate with the Company and its replacement supplier in transitioning the work to a replacement supplier.

30.3. IRREPARABLE HARM. THE PARTIES FURTHER AGREE THAT ANY BREACH OF THESE GPC OR A PURCHASE ORDER OR THREAT OF BREACH BY THE SUPPLIER THAT WOULD HAVE THE EFFECT OF INTERRUPTING PRODUCTION AT THE COMPANY OR THE CUSTOMER, WOULD RESULT IN IRREPARABLE HARM TO THE COMPANY, ITS CUSTOMERS AND THE BUSINESS AND REPUTATION OF EACH OF THEM, AND THAT MONEY DAMAGES WOULD NOT BE A SUFFICIENT REMEDY FOR ANY SUCH BREACH. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT IN SUCH EVENT THE COMPANY SHALL BE ENTITLED TO EQUITABLE RELIEF, INCLUDING INJUNCTION AND SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE, REQUIRING FURTHER PRODUCTION OF CONTRACTUAL PRODUCTS AND/OR THE PROVISION OF CONTRACTUAL SERVICES, AS A REMEDY FOR ANY SUCH BREACH OR CLAIMED BREACH. FOR PURPOSES OF CLARITY, IN THE EVENT THAT THE SUPPLIER TAKES OR THREATENS TO TAKE ACTION (OR FAILS TO ACT) IN A MANNER THAT DISRUPTS OR THREATENS TO DISRUPT THE COMPANY’S ABILITY TO PRODUCE AND DELIVER TO THE CUSTOMERS ON SCHEDULE, THE COMPANY SHALL HAVE THE RIGHT TO SEEK SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE OF A PURCHASE ORDER IN A COURT OF THE COMPANY’S CHOOSING WITHOUT APPLICATION OF PRINCIPLES OF CONFLICTS OF LAW.

30.4. Legal Fees. For purpose of clarity, in addition to any other remedy available to the Forvia Indemnified Parties, the Forvia Indemnified Parties shall be entitled to recover its costs, reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, and expert fees and costs incurred in connection with any legal proceeding brought by or against any Forvia Indemnified Party.

31. SERVICE AND REPLACEMENT PARTS

If the Contractual Products are systems or modules, the Supplier will sell the components or parts that comprise the system or module at price(s) that shall not, in the aggregate, exceed the price of the system or module less assembly costs. During the fifteen (15)-year period after the Company completes current model purchases, or such later period designated by the Customer, the Supplier will sell goods and/or Contractual Products to the Company to fulfill the Company’s past model service and replacement parts requirements. Unless otherwise agreed to by the Company in writing, the price(s) during the first five (5) years of this period shall be the prices set forth in the final production Purchase Order. For the remainder of this period, the price(s) for Contractual Products shall be a reasonable price as agreed to by the parties in good faith.

32. CUSTOMER TERMS

Except to the extent of any conflict with explicit terms of a Purchase Order, the Supplier shall comply with the general terms and conditions of purchasing of the Company’s Customer or other agreement received by the Company from the Customer, the Supplier shall be responsible for ascertaining the Customer’s general terms and conditions that may affect the Supplier’s obligations hereunder. Without restricting the foregoing, the Supplier shall take such steps within the Supplier’s control to enable the Company to meet the Company’s obligations to the Customer under the Customer’s purchase orders.

32.1. Customer Terms Update. Company may, from time to time, in its sole discretion, provide Supplier with information regarding the applicable Customer Terms, but, in any event, Supplier shall remain responsible for ascertaining the Customer Terms that may affect Supplier’s obligation hereunder and hereby agrees to be bound to such Customer Terms.

32.2. Conflict of Terms. If there is any conflict between the provisions of the Customer Terms and any provisions of the Purchase Order, Company shall have the sole and exclusive right to determine which terms shall govern.

32.3. Customer Insolvency. In the event that the Customer threatens or suffers an insolvency event, in the course of any proceedings relating to such insolvency event and in connection with actual or threatened termination by the Customer of its contract(s) with Company, Company permits a reduction in the prices paid by Customer for Contractual Products or Contractual Services, then the prices paid to Supplier for such Contractual Products or Contractual Services from and after the date of such reduction will be automatically adjusted proportionately by the same percentage as the price reduction granted to the Customer, and the Purchase Order(s) shall otherwise remain in effect without modification.

32.4. Assignment of Accounts Payable. In the event Customer fails to pay Company for the products incorporating the Contractual Products and/or Contractual Services supplied by Supplier, Company reserves the right to assign to Supplier the right to collect such amounts directly from the Customer, in whole or in part, and Supplier agrees to accept such assignment as payment for any invoices due from Company to Supplier on a dollar-for-dollar basis. In such case, Supplier shall release Company of any liens or similar obligations upon completion of such assignment.

32.5. Payment Term Adjustments. In addition to any other rights or remedies provided under the Contract or any Purchase Order, if the Customer designated the Supplier as a Mandated Supplier, (i) Company will pay Supplier for the Contractual Products and Contractual Services received only after and to the extent of, and in proportion to, Company’s actual receipt of payment from the Customer for those products into which the Contractual Products and/or Contractual Services are incorporated; (ii) any lengthening of Customer’s payment terms to Company for those products into which the Contractual Products and/or Contractual Services are incorporated will automatically lengthen the payment terms as between Company and Supplier in proportion to the change in Customer Terms; and (iii) within three (3) days of any change in price, specifications or other terms negotiated or proposed between Supplier and Customer, Supplier shall notify Company in writing and immediately adjust its invoices to reflect any price reduction, provided that no change will be binding on Company without Company’s specific written consent.

33. APPLICABLE LAW - JURISDICTION

33.1. Interpretation. These terms and any Purchase Order shall by interpreted and enforced in accordance with the laws of the People’s Republic of China, exclusive of the choice of law rules.

33.2. Good Faith Negotiation. The Contracting Parties shall endeavour to amicably resolve differences of opinion with respect to the interpretation, performance or termination of the Contract prior to bringing a complaint or initiating a legal proceeding.

33.3. Venue. For any legal or equitable action arising out of the Purchase Order, Supplier consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent court in the location of the Company issuing the Purchase Order.

34. GENERAL PROVISIONS

34.1. Subcontractors. The Supplier shall only be permitted to use Subcontractors to render Contractual Products and/or Contractual Services or portions thereof with the prior written consent of the Company. The Supplier shall be required to contractually and organizationally ensure that the Subcontractors are properly trained and comply with the provisions of the Contract (particularly the non-disclosure obligation).

34.2. Non-reduction of Liability. Consent by the Company shall not limit the liability of the Supplier. The Supplier shall be liable on an unrestricted basis for the acts and omissions of the Subcontractor.

34.3. Tort Recovery. Company’s rights and Supplier’s obligations under any Purchase Order shall not limit in any way whatsoever Supplier’s tort obligations or Company’s right to sue in tort in addition, or as an alternative to suing under contract principles. Supplier hereby waives the right to sue in tort in respect to any matter that is addressed, in whole or in part, by the Contractual Documents, including the Contract or any Purchase Order.

34.4. Assignment of Claims. The Supplier shall not be entitled to assign claims arising from the Contract to third parties without the prior written consent of the Company. The Company may not unfairly deny consent. If an extended reservation of title of a supplier of the Supplier is present, consent shall be deemed to be given following separate written notice (a notice on the delivery note or on an invoice shall not suffice). If the Supplier assigns its claims against the Company without the necessary consent, the Company can, at its discretion, render performance to the Supplier or the relevant third party with obligation-discharging effect.
34.5. Setoff and Retention. The Supplier shall only be entitled to set off any claims against the Company, if such claims have been acknowledged by the Company or judicially established. This shall apply mutatis mutandis to rights of retention of the Supplier. The Company may deduct or set-off at any time indebtedness from any amounts due or to become due to Supplier (and/or Supplier’s affiliates), with or without notice to Supplier.

34.6. Relationship of the Contracting Parties. If not explicitly agreed differently in writing, the Contract should not be interpreted as:

34.6.1. constituting a de facto company, a joint venture, an agency, a foundation, or any other association of any kind between the Contracting Parties; or

34.6.2. constituting a joint and several liability between the Company and the Affiliated Companies or between the Affiliated Companies among themselves; or

34.6.3. permitting to one of the Contracting Parties, towards a third party, to act or to declare itself as having the authority to act as an agent, a representative, or by any other means, to commit or to bind the other Party at any obligation; or

34.6.4. constituting an exclusive engagement, profiting to the Supplier for the delivery of the Contractual Products and Contractual Services.

34.7. Assignment and Transfer.

The Company is entitled to freely assign in whole or in part the Contract, including any Purchase Order (including the Company’s interest therein) to any Affiliated Company or to any third party, without the Supplier’s consent. The Supplier shall not assign the Contract, including any Purchase Order or any portion thereof or any work thereunder or any interest therein, except that the Supplier may, with the prior written consent of the Company, make an assignment of monies due or which may become due to the Supplier to a bank, or other financial institution; provided, however, that any such assignment shall be subject to set-off, recoupment or any other lawful means of enforcing any present or future claim or claims which the Company may have against the Supplier.

34.8. Severability Clause.

Should any provision of the Contract be void, invalid, illegal, unenforceable, or in violation of any applicable laws, by virtue of a judicial decision, arbitration award, competition regulatory body’s decision, or any other regulatory bodies’ decision, or under any applicable laws, the provision of the Contract thus affected shall be curtailed and limited only to the extent necessary to bring it within the requirements of the laws, and all other provisions of the Contract not affected or impaired shall remain in full force and effect.

34.10. No Waiver.

The fact that one of the Contracting Parties does not use a right arising from the Contract or by statute at any point in time or demand the use of such right by the other Contracting Party shall not constitute waiver of the use of such right. The Contracting Party shall be entitled to continue to assert such rights.

34.11. Company’s Website.

34.11.1. Company’s internet website (or such other website as may be directed through links on Company’s website, or other supplier portal provided by Company) (the “Company Website”) may contain specific additional requirements for certain items covered by the Purchase Orders, including supply chain and logistics, labelling, packaging, shipping, delivery and quality specifications, procedures, directions and/or instructions. Any such requirements shall be deemed to form part of the Contract and apply to the Purchase Order. Company may periodically update such requirements by posting revisions on Company’s Website.

34.11.2. Company may modify the Purchase Order terms, GPC, QAA, Code of Conduct, Particular Conditions or the Contract from time to time by posting revised terms to Company’s Website. Such revised terms shall apply to all Purchase Orders and Purchase Order revisions issued on or after the effective date of Company’s posting of the modified terms and conditions. Supplier agrees that it is Supplier’s obligation to review Company’s Website periodically and waives notice of any updates to the Contract, or Purchase Order, other than as such updated terms may be posted on the Company’s website.

34.12. Proof of Origin.

Where applicable, the Supplier has to provide by January 15th of each year its long-term-supplier’s declaration for Contractual Products having preferential origin as per Council Regulation (EC) No. 1207/2001 and the applicable addenda to the Company on an unsolicited basis by not later than January 15 of each year. The declaration must be valid for the respective calendar year (i.e., from January 01 – December 31 of the year). If there are any changes, the Supplier shall promptly notify the Company and send a new long-term supplier declaration on an unsolicited basis.
